

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Congregational Covenant

“This is what I needed. I had been pastoring for 15 years, leading up to my D.Min.

studies at Asbury Seminary. I wasn't burned out. I wasn't tired. I was just ready to be re-shaped again.”

-Ken Nash

Ministry entails partnership. Faithful pastoral leaders join vibrant congregations to incarnate the Gospel in their neighborhoods. God's mission, stewarded through lay and clergy saints, permeates societies and transforms nations. You have already indicated your support in prayer and time away for your pastoral leader. During these brief years of doctor of ministry study, we also invite you to covenant with him or her for tuition support. In Asbury's Doctor of Ministry program, your leader will:

Renew. Our program invites leaders to rediscover classical “Transformative Habits” that produce “Transformative Mission.”

Retool. Our process exposes leaders to highly-respected ministry thought leaders and models that expand leadership toolkits.

Relaunch. Our design, with its leadership sustainability focus, calls leaders to reinvest in a career built to last, a life formed to leave a legacy.

What is the Congregational Covenant?

- The Covenant allows churches to partner with Asbury Seminary and seasoned leaders to provide tuition support in the Doctor of Ministry Program.

How does my congregation support a specific student in the Congregational Covenant Program?

1. Once your church body has decided to support your leader(s), complete and submit the form on the back of this sheet.
2. You, the church, submit the check for deposit into your leader's tuition account. All financial support must come directly to the school from the church and cannot be sent to the leader.
3. Checks must be made to Asbury Theological Seminary. Include a letter with your check that states the church name, student ID number and scholarship.
4. Mail checks to:
Business Office, Asbury Theological Seminary,
204 N. Lexington Ave., Wilmore, Ky. 40390
