COURSE DESCRIPTION

This final cohort seminar (Seminar IV: Missional GPS: Navigation for New Churches) runs coterminously with Seminar III. The same is true of the observational part of the situated learning component since there are several crossover components. GPS is all about getting from here to there. For us, that includes putting together the biblical concepts we began with, including a focus on church planting as one component of joining God on his mission to the world and, then, moving on from there to observe how, under the banner of church planting, we go about discerning God’s direction, making disciples, and gathering communities of the kingdom. A special emphasis of this final seminar is on the relational aspects of disciple-making, community “net-weaving,” and building Christian communities.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the time students complete Asbury’s D.Min. program, they will be able to:

PLO 1:

Practice Christian dispositions and habits in community for faithful living.

- D.Min. cohorts are immersed in community-based formation around the priorities of scripture, tradition, reason, and experience.

PLO 2:

Integrate leadership vision, ethic, and practice contextualized to their ministry setting.

- By methodically analyzing a specific ministry issue, D.Min. students contribute to the understanding of the practice of ministry.

PLO 3:

Reflect biblically, theologically, and culturally as a lifelong learner and leader in ministry.

- Students deepen their capacities for biblical, theological, and cultural exegesis as foundations for 21st century ministry around the world.

REQUIRED STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of DM(CPC)918B, students will have an accomplished to exceptional ability to:

1. Demonstrate a wide-ranging knowledge of theological, theoretical, and applied thinking on a range of church planting issues, including missional ecclesiology, living systems, church planting leadership, and church planting priorities in diaspora populations and world cities. (PLO #3)
2. Articulate informed viewpoints vis-à-vis a range of prominent, contemporary church planting issues, emphases, and debates, as well as defend those viewpoints with cogent arguments and reliable evidence. (PLO #2, #3)

3. Integrate theory, theology, and praxis for the selected aspect of church planting ministry. (PLO #2)

Winfield Bevens, D.Min. Winfield Bevens is the Director of Church Planting at Asbury Theological Seminary. He is an adjunct professor and guest lecturer at various seminaries and universities in the United States and England. He has a Doctor of Ministry from Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest and is pursuing a PhD at the University of Aberdeen, Scotland. He is a visiting Scholar at the National Institute for Newman Studies, Duquesne University. Having grown up in a free-church background, Winfield eventually found his spiritual home in the Anglican tradition, but freely draws wisdom from all church traditions.

Winfield is the author of several books, including Marks of a Movement: What the Church Today Can Learn from the Wesleyan Revival; and Ever Ancient Ever New: The Allure of Liturgy for a New Generation; Creed: Connect to the Essentials of Historic Christian Faith; Our Common Prayer: A Field Guide to Common Prayer; Grow at Home; and Church Planting Revolution. He has published articles in various publications including Liturgy, The Wesleyan Theological Journal, The Asbury Theological Journal, Pneuma Review, The Journal of Pentecostal Theology, and Christianity Today.

As a seasoned practitioner, he has helped plant several churches and has used his experience to train leaders from around the world. He is also a visual artist who enjoys painting iconography, landscapes, and portraits. Over the past decade, he has helped start numerous arts initiatives, including a non-profit art gallery and studio, and an arts program in North Carolina. He and his wife Kay live in Wilmore, Kentucky and have three daughters; Elizabeth, Anna Belle, and Caroline.

Bryan Collier, D.Min. Dr. Collier is the Founding Pastor and also the Lead Pastor and Ministry Coach at The Orchard in Tupelo, Miss. Prior to planting The Orchard, he served four pastorates in Mississippi and Kentucky.

He began his Master of Divinity at Asbury Theological Seminary in the fall of 1991 and while serving pastorates in Kentucky, and earned his degree in the spring of 1994. Receiving a Beeson Fellowship Grant in 1997, his research focus was in the arena of systems theory and its impact as a tool of the leader. Collier adapted much of MIT Professor Peter Senge's seminal work, The Fifth Discipline: The Art and Practice of The Learning Organization for church use.

Collier has more than 20 years of experience in pastoral ministry. His interests and expertise includes leadership issues, church for the un-churched and cultural dissection. He is passionate about helping people at all stages of faith grow deep in the love of God and branch out to others with that love. His passion extends to helping leaders and organizations facilitate this growth. To that end he is the author of Becoming An Orchard, Xulon Press, 2006; Gentle Interventions, Xulon Press, 2008; and The Go-To Church, Abingdon Press, 2013.

Attendance/Participation: To progress satisfactorily and achieve learning outcomes in this class, students must meet the course requirements. Students are responsible for notifying instructors of the reason for any absences as soon as possible and are accountable for all assignments. Makeup quizzes or exams are generally not permitted unless previously arranged with the instructor. Each faculty member will provide a written attendance policy for each class and also go over that policy on the first day of class for the course. Refer to the ATS Student Handbook for additional information regarding attendance policies and excused absences.

Late Assignments: Any assignment submitted after the due date and time will be reduced two numerical points for every day late. For example, two days late would reduce the grade from a 90 to an 86, unless the student talks to the professor ahead of time and receives permission to turn in the assignment late, based upon a legitimate excuse (such as illness).

Format of Papers: Students must use MLA academic style for completing papers; this is also the required style for your dissertation.

INCOMPLETE WORK POLICY

Incomplete Work: “A grade of ‘I’ denotes that course work has not been completed due to an unavoidable emergency. Delinquency or attending to church work or other employment does not constitute an unavoidable emergency. Without an approved ‘I,’ a letter grade will be recorded based on grades received for completed work and an ‘F’ grade assigned to incomplete work” (ATS 2015-16 Student Handbook, page 67).

Letter	Lowest	Highest
A	94.00%	100.00%
A-	90.00%	93.99%

The unit of credit is a semester hour, which is defined as one hour of classroom work per week for one semester, or its equivalent. The 4.00 point system is used to compute grade point standing. The grading system is:

POLICIES

Each student is responsible for being familiar with seminary policies. Asbury Seminary reserves the right to change policies when necessary. Below are brief descriptions of a few seminary policies. For more detailed information regarding school policies, please refer to the ATS Student Handbook at asburyseminary.edu/students/student-services/student-handbook/

Disability Accommodations

Asbury Theological Seminary provides reasonable accommodation on an individualized basis for qualified students with disabilities. Students are required to provide documentation of a disability prior to receiving classroom accommodations. Since accommodations may require early planning before or at the start of the term and are generally not provided retroactively, students need to contact an Accommodations Officer as soon as possible. If you are a student with a disability and believe you require reasonable accommodations in this class, you will need to make an appointment with an Accommodations Officer in the Office of the Registrar on the Kentucky campus or in the Enrollment Management Office on the Florida campus. Students attending the Tennessee site should contact the Kentucky Registrar.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is expected of every student. Plagiarism, that is, “presenting ... another’s ideas or writings as one’s own,” is considered a serious violation of integrity and is unacceptable. Detailed information, including the penalty for plagiarizing, is in the Student Handbook. For additional information about plagiarism, go to plagiarism.org.

In this course we may utilize Unicheck, an automated system that compares students’ assignments with websites as well as a database of previously submitted student work. After the assignment is processed, instructors receive a report from unicheck.com (through SpeedGrader™) that states if and how another person’s work was used in the assignment. For more information, see www.unicheck.com. If you have questions about academic honesty, please contact the library at helpdesk@asburyseminary.edu.

Copyright Information

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

By using online media resources, students are consenting to abide by this copyright policy. Any duplication, reproduction, or modification of this material without express written consent from Asbury Theological Seminary and/or the original publisher is strictly prohibited.

ZOOM

Courses may use Zoom for synchronous online instruction. These sessions may be recorded by the professor and posted into the Canvas classroom. The recorded sessions will not be downloadable, and will not be used by the professor in future classes unless there is documented permission from all of the students in the recording. Chat rooms in a Zoom call are recorded and discretion should be exercised when using the chat feature, including in private rooms.

Video recordings may be considered educational records under the Family Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) and will be protected as such by the Seminary. Zoom collects only minimal client information and ensures that information is kept secure (<https://zoom.us/docs/doc/FERPA%20Guide.pdf>).

Requests for accessibility accommodations related to Zoom will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis as described above under Disability Accommodations.
