COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines biblically-informed principles related to the formation of the leadership skills of vision, mobilization and organizational development. The course is designed to describe and analyze the principles and processes of organizational development with a focus on use of various resources in accomplishing the organization's vision and mission. Taking this assumption as an imperative, participants are challenged to confront those obstacles in self, supervision, situation, system, strategy and society that may be poised to work against the realization of that ideal. The focus (texts, conversations, learning and experiences), therefore, is on those life-long priorities and practices that sustain missional leadership lifestyles and contributions. Special emphasis is given to understanding the leader's role as a change agent and manager of organizational change.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the time students complete Asbury's D.Min. program, they will be able to:

PLO 1:

Practice Christian dispositions and habits in community for faithful living.

- D.Min. cohorts are immersed in community-based formation around the priorities of scripture, tradition, reason, and experience.

PLO 2:

Integrate leadership vision, ethic, and practice contextualized to their ministry setting.

- By methodically analyzing a specific ministry issue, D.Min. students contribute to the understanding of the practice of ministry.

PLO 3:

Reflect biblically, theologically, and culturally as a lifelong learner and leader in ministry.

- Students deepen their capacities for biblical, theological, and cultural exegesis as foundations for 21st century ministry around the world.

REQUIRED STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of DM(PLE)918A, students will have a developing ability to:

1. Evaluate ministry organizations based on sustainability in the mission to which they are called. (PLO #1)
2. Estimate current capacities and strategies required for the faithful mobilization of staff, volunteers and community in achieving organizational goals. (PLO #2)^[1]_[SEP]
3. Apply current organizational research resources to the problems/processes of ministry organizations to their own current mental models. (PLO #3)

ASSIGNMENTS AND RUBRICS OR EVALUATION CRITERIA

To successfully complete this class, students must satisfactorily complete and submit all assignments on time and actively participate and contribute to the learning community.

1. Organizational and Personal Scan (80 points)

Due Date: TBD

Points/Percentage: 80

Learning Outcome: 1, 2, 3, 4

Write a 10 – 12 page, double-spaced paper to describe your context. Part One of the paper will summarize the demographics, psychographics, culture and subcultures of your context. Part Two will overview your church or parachurch ministry by describing the structure, capacities and leadership development patterns in the organization. Part Three will identify two to three critical areas in your organization that you believe need to change to meet the opportunities and challenges of your situation. Part Four will be a reflection on your personal change map. Where are you interacting with the context? Where do you find yourself “hitting the ceiling?” Watch the change map video prior to writing this section. Think in terms of three to five pages for your reflection.

Demonstrate use of as many of the course texts as are applicable. Citations are important. Integrating ten or more outside sources (from prior courses or conferences, for example) makes the paper much stronger and are expected.

You will send your paper to a partner in the course for their review and comments by August 1. They are to have their insights to you by TBD.

2. Course Participation (20 points)

Due Date: TBD

Points/Percentage: 20

Learning Outcome: 2

Demonstrate consistent engagement with your peers online as prompted as well as on your partner's paper. Your partner will evaluate the quality and promptness of your feedback.

Attendance/Participation: To progress satisfactorily and achieve learning outcomes in this class, students must meet the course requirements. Students are responsible for notifying instructors of the reason for any absences as soon as possible and are accountable for all assignments. Makeup quizzes or exams are generally not permitted unless previously arranged with the instructor. Each faculty member will provide a written attendance policy for each class and also go over that policy on the first day of class for the course. Refer to the ATS Student Handbook for additional information regarding attendance policies and excused absences.

Late Assignments: Any assignment submitted after the due date and time will be reduced two numerical points for every day late. For example, two days late would reduce the grade from a 90 to an 86, unless the student talks to the professor ahead of time and receives permission to turn in the assignment late, based upon a legitimate excuse (such as illness).

Format of Papers: Students must use MLA academic style for completing papers; this is also the required style for your dissertation.

INCOMPLETE WORK POLICY

Incomplete Work: “A grade of ‘I’ denotes that course work has not been completed due to an unavoidable emergency. Delinquency or attending to church work or other employment does not constitute an unavoidable emergency. Without an approved ‘I,’ a letter grade will be recorded based on grades received for completed work and an ‘F’ grade assigned to incomplete work” (ATS 2015-16 Student Handbook, page 67).

For more detailed information regarding school policies, please refer to the ATS Student Handbook at asburyseminary.edu/students/student-services/student-handbook/

Disability Accommodations

Asbury Theological Seminary provides reasonable accommodation on an individualized basis for qualified students with disabilities. Students are required to provide documentation of a disability prior to receiving classroom accommodations. Since accommodations may require early planning before or at the start of the term and are generally not provided retroactively, students need to contact an Accommodations Officer as soon as possible. If you are a student with a disability and believe you require reasonable accommodations in this class, you will need to make an appointment with an Accommodations Officer in the Office of the Registrar on the Kentucky campus or in the Enrollment Management Office on the Florida campus. Students attending the Tennessee site should contact the Kentucky Registrar.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is expected of every student. Plagiarism, that is, “presenting ... another’s ideas or writings as one’s own,” is considered a serious violation of integrity and is unacceptable. Detailed information, including the penalty for plagiarizing, is in the Student Handbook. For additional information about plagiarism, go to plagiarism.org.

In this course we may utilize Unicheck, an automated system that compares students’ assignments with websites as well as a database of previously submitted student work. After the assignment is processed, instructors receive a report from unicheck.com (through SpeedGrader™) that states if and how another person’s work was used in the assignment. For more information, see www.unicheck.com. If you have questions about academic honesty, please contact the library at helpdesk@asburyseminary.edu.

Copyright Information

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

By using online media resources, students are consenting to abide by this copyright policy. Any duplication, reproduction, or modification of this material without express written consent from Asbury Theological Seminary and/or the original publisher is strictly prohibited.

ZOOM

Courses may use Zoom for synchronous online instruction. These sessions may be recorded by the professor and posted into the Canvas classroom. The recorded sessions will not be downloadable, and will not be used by the professor in future classes unless there is documented permission from all of the students in the recording. Chat rooms in a Zoom call are recorded and discretion should be exercised when using the chat feature, including in private rooms.

Video recordings may be considered educational records under the Family Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) and will be protected as such by the Seminary. Zoom collects only minimal client information and ensures that information is kept secure (<https://zoom.us/docs/doc/FERPA%20Guide.pdf>).

Requests for accessibility accommodations related to Zoom will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis as described above under Disability Accommodations.
