2.00 Credit Hours

Extended Learning/Online course

2022 Spring Session/Feb 7, 2022 – May 20, 2022

PROFESSOR INFORMATION

Name: Dr. Stephen (Steve) Martyn

Email: steve.martyn@asburyseminary.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION

DM(SDL)917A & B will introduce students to the art and discipline of individual spiritual direction. This course will apply the Christian anthropology of Adrian van Kaam and the insights of Formative Spirituality to provide students with a beginning understanding of the dynamic processes of individual direction. Private formation guidance will be distinguished from professional clinical counseling and will be viewed as temporary verses long-term in order to avoid inordinate dependence upon directors. The course will focus upon equipping students to foster the unique-communal call upon the lives of those they are called to direct. Topics such as prayerful formative listening, direction within an anthropological matrix, reliance upon consonant faith and form traditions, and abandonment in faith, hope, and love to God will be covered. In addition, common pitfalls of private spiritual direction will be discussed. Students will enter into spiritual direction sessions with each other and will create verbatims from those sessions.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the time students complete Asbury's D.Min. program, they will be able to:

PLO 1:

Practice Christian dispositions and habits in community for faithful living.

ASSIGNMENTS AND RUBRICS OR EVALUATION CRITERIA

To successfully complete this class, students must satisfactorily complete and submit all assignments on time and actively participate and contribute to the learning community.

1. One-On-One Spiritual Direction Practicum, Part 3 (50 Points)

Due Date: March 12, 2022

Points/Percentage: 50

Learning Outcome: 1, 2, 3

The Art & Discipline of Listening, Reviewing, Framing & Inviting

Reading/Study/Viewing

Please read: Formative Spirituality Volume Seven: Transcendence Therapy. This magnificent volume will assist you in understanding the aspirations and ideals of the transcendent dimension and it will point out some significant obstacles that can arise in this higher dimension.

In addition, please read chapters I – XI in The Roots of Christian Joy.

View and take notes on the Teaching Videos posted in Part 3 of our Course Center in Canvas. We will review the art and discipline of listening, reviewing, and framing in one-on-one direction. In addition we will discuss the Pneumatic/Ecclesial dimension and how the Holy Spirit works through that dimension to inspire Inspirations and send Invitations. Thus the fourth element of inviting will be introduced.

Following directions delivered by the professor via teaching segments in Module 3 in Canvas for DM(SDL) 917B, Spring 2022, each student will conduct a third direction session with their assigned colleague. Students will then create a partial verbatim of their direction session of 5 (five) single-spaced pages.

In this third direction session, strong emphasis will continue on active listening, accurate reflection, reviewing, and a beginning sense of inviting. The instructional videos will continue to explain and demonstrate listening, reflection, and framing, and then will add important element of discerning invitations as coming from the Holy Spirit.

Connecting Assigned Readings to the One-On-One Direction Sessions

After the five-page verbatim, each student will then create an additional 3 (three) page document in which they interact with the assigned readings for the module and how those readings informed their direction session. This additional document will continue in a single-spaced format with one space between paragraphs. The purpose of this 3-page extension is to connect readings with the practical experience of one-on-one direction.

2. One-On-One Spiritual Direction Practicum, Part 4 (50 points)

Due Date: May 7, 2022

Points/Percentage: 50

Learning Outcome: 1, 2, 3

The Art & Discipline of Listening, Reviewing, Framing & Inviting

Reading/Study/Viewing

Please read: Formation Theology: Volume Three: Formation of The Christian Heart. This volume by both van Kaam and Muto will assist you in discerning how the Holy Spirit moves to transform the Christian heart in and through the Dimensions, the Field, and the Integrating Structures.

In addition, please read Chapters XII – XXII in The Roots of Christian Joy

View and take notes on the Teaching Videos posted in Part 4 of our Course Center in Canvas. The role of Pneumatic/Ecclesial Invitations will receive further attention in this module. In addition, Invitations will be seen as coming in and through crises. In this fifth direction session, emphasis will continue on the role of Invitations and how they announce themselves in and through formative detachment crises.

Following directions delivered by the professor via teaching segments in Module 4 of Canvas for DM(SDL) 917B, Spring 2022, each student will conduct a fourth direction session with their assigned colleague. Students will then create a partial verbatim of their direction session of 5 (five) single-spaced pages.

Connecting Assigned Readings to the One-On-One Direction Sessions

After the five-page verbatim, each student will then create an additional 3 (three) page document in which they interact with the assigned readings for the module and how those readings informed their direction session. This additional document will continue in a single-spaced format with one space between paragraphs. The purpose of this 3-page extension is to connect readings with the practical experience of one-on-one direction.

Attendance/Participation: To progress satisfactorily and achieve learning outcomes in this class, students must meet the course requirements. Students are responsible for notifying instructors of the reason for any absences as soon as possible and are accountable for all assignments. Makeup quizzes or exams are generally not permitted unless previously arranged with the instructor. Each faculty member will provide a written attendance policy for each class and also go over that policy on the first day of class for the course. Refer to the ATS Student Handbook for additional information regarding attendance policies and excused absences.

Late Assignments: Any assignment submitted after the due date and time will be reduced two numerical points for every day late. For example, two days late would reduce the grade from a 90 to an 86, unless the student talks to the professor ahead of time and receives permission to turn in the assignment late, based upon a legitimate excuse (such as illness).

Format of Papers: Students must use MLA academic style for completing papers; this is also the required style for your dissertation.

INCOMPLETE WORK POLICY

Incomplete Work: “A grade of ‘I’ denotes that course work has not been completed due to an unavoidable emergency. Delinquency or attending to church work or other employment does not constitute an unavoidable emergency. Without an approved ‘I,’ a letter grade will be recorded based on grades received for completed work and an ‘F’ grade assigned to incomplete work” (ATS 2015-16 Student Handbook, page 67).

The unit of credit is a semester hour, which is defined as one hour of classroom work per week for one semester, or its equivalent. The 4.00 point system is used to compute grade point standing. The grading system is:

GRADE	EVALUATION CRITERIA
A	Exceptional work: surpassing outstanding achievement of course objectives
B	Good work: strong, significant achievement of course objectives
C	Acceptable work: basic, essential achievement of course objectives
D	Marginal work: inadequate, minimal achievement of course objectives
F	Unacceptable work: failure to achieve course objectives

Each student is responsible for being familiar with seminary policies. Asbury Seminary reserves the right to change policies when necessary. Below are brief descriptions of a few seminary policies. For more detailed information regarding school policies, please refer to the ATS Student Handbook at asburyseminary.edu/students/student-services/student-handbook/

Disability Accommodations

Asbury Theological Seminary provides reasonable accommodation on an individualized basis for qualified students with disabilities. Students are required to provide documentation of a disability prior to receiving classroom accommodations. Since accommodations may require early planning before or at the start of the term and are generally not provided retroactively, students need to contact an Accommodations Officer as soon as possible. If you are a student with a disability and believe you require reasonable accommodations in this class, you will need to make an appointment with an Accommodations Officer in the Office of the Registrar on the Kentucky campus or in the Enrollment Management Office on the Florida campus. Students attending the Tennessee site should contact the Kentucky Registrar.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is expected of every student. Plagiarism, that is, “presenting ... another’s ideas or writings as one’s own,” is considered a serious violation of integrity and is unacceptable. Detailed information, including the penalty for plagiarizing, is in the Student Handbook. For additional information about plagiarism, go to plagiarism.org.

In this course we may utilize Unicheck, an automated system that compares students’ assignments with websites as well as a database of previously submitted student work. After the assignment is processed, instructors receive a report from unicheck.com (through SpeedGrader™) that states if and how another person's work was used in the assignment. For more information, see www.unicheck.com. If you have questions about academic honesty, please contact the library at helpdesk@asburyseminary.edu.

Copyright Information

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

By using online media resources, students are consenting to abide by this copyright policy. Any duplication, reproduction, or modification of this material without express written consent from Asbury Theological Seminary and/or the original publisher is strictly prohibited.

ZOOM

Courses may use Zoom for synchronous online instruction. These sessions may be recorded by the professor and posted into the Canvas classroom. The recorded sessions will not be downloadable, and will not be used by the professor in future classes unless there is documented permission from all of the students in the recording. Chat rooms in a Zoom call are recorded and discretion should be exercised when using the chat feature, including in private rooms.

Video recordings may be considered educational records under the Family Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) and will be protected as such by the Seminary. Zoom collects only minimal client information and ensures that information is kept secure (<https://zoom.us/docs/doc/FERPA%20Guide.pdf>).

Requests for accessibility accommodations related to Zoom will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis as described above under Disability Accommodations.
