COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course within the Exponential Church Planting cohort critically, constructively, and creatively reflects on a range of mobilization frameworks that move a church's leadership development strategies beyond mere assimilation and toward the rapid multiplication and "sentness" of lay and clergy leaders. The class interaction focuses on the process of mobilizing leaders for missional endeavors in localized communities, and throughout the world. By analyzing past and current movements that have tapped into a mobilization theology and strategy, students gain a fuller understanding of the necessary modes and components for creating a contextualized mobilization culture. Capacities acquired in this course lead churches toward not only having a mobilization theology, but also creating a sustainable structure for mobilizing leaders.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the time students complete the D.Min. Program, they will have an accomplished or exceptional ability to:

1. Revisit foundations for sustainable ministry.
  - Being immersed in explicit Wesleyan practices of community-based formation around the priorities of scripture, reason, tradition and experience, participants will discover transformational habits for sustainable ministry lifestyles.
2. Foster ministry leadership vision, ethic and practice relevant to their ministry context and world.
  - By deeply engaging in analysis of one significant theme from their unique ministry context, participants establish a trajectory for life-long contribution.
3. Appreciate transformational demands within contemporary ministry organizational contexts such as congregations, non-profits and marketplace engagements through various analytic means of biblical, theological, social and cultural exegesis.
  - Participants must add to their biblical and theological exegesis, cultural-situational exegesis that informs ministry leadership practice on a daily basis.

REQUIRED STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, students will have a beginning to developing ability to:

1. Explain key leadership mobilization philosophies, methods, genres, and global expressions, as well as a range of informed perspectives on their strengths, weaknesses, and potential. (PLO #1, #2)
2. Reflect critically and appreciatively on course readings, lectures, discussions, and case studies vis-à-vis contemporary mobilization methods and strategies. (PLO #2, #3)
3. Demonstrate up-to-date knowledge of the field, analytic competency, and proficiency in developing appropriate recommendations and strategies for improvements in mobilization effectiveness. (PLO #3)

ASSIGNMENTS AND RUBRICS OR EVALUATION CRITERIA

To successfully complete this class, students must satisfactorily complete and submit all assignments on time and actively participate and contribute to the learning community.

1. Participation (20 points)

Due Date: September 1 – November 30, 2022

Points/Percentage: 20%

Learning Outcome: 1, 2, 3

Whether online or in person, the classroom experience provides an essential laboratory for the assimilation of knowledge, probing alternative theories, and adjustment of strategy. This learning process takes place through interactive lecture, discussion, questioning, inquiry, research, brainstorming, and inspiration. Therefore, active participation is crucial for applying the principles outlined in the required texts, as well as adapting them to your ministry context. Participation points are earned by displaying insight, constructive feedback, critical thinking in the classroom environment and demonstrate movement from theory to practice outside the classroom, by actively helping a believer start a missional expression.

2. Interview Report (30 points)

Due Date: October 31, 2022

Points/Percentage: 30%

Learning Outcome: 1, 2

Students will interview two leaders who have been involved in leading primarily lay-led multiplication initiatives within their church or network. The goal of the interview centers on the leader’s personal mobilization theology, and his or her personal lifestyle as it relates to raising up missionary disciples actively starting new missional outposts in the world. Post-interview, students will write a 5 to 6-page reflection paper (double spaced). This paper should reflect critical engagement with the interviewee’s mobilization experience, theological perspective, and practical wisdom.

3. Case Study Paper (50 points)

Due Date: November 28, 2022

Points/Percentage: 50%

Learning Outcome: 3

This 12 to 15-page (double spaced) case study paper is to be a comparison of two or three case studies of churches or networks that specialize in mobilizing leaders for new missional assignments. The first half of the paper will describe and compare the cases, highlighting similarities and differences, and offering brief SWOT-style analyses of them. Then, in the second half of the paper, you will analyze the genre itself: e.g., where and why it works and doesn’t, how strategic it is or isn’t in the 21st-century and/or in particular settings or situations. Choose church environments that reflect your own aspirations, ministry expectations, or special interest. Let it serve as a tool for your dissertation research. This paper should reflect new insights from the course readings and experiences.

Attendance/Participation: To progress satisfactorily and achieve learning outcomes in this class, students must meet the course requirements. Students are responsible for notifying instructors of the reason for any absences as soon as possible and are accountable for all assignments. Makeup quizzes or exams are generally not permitted unless previously arranged with the instructor. Each faculty member will provide a written attendance policy for each class and also go over that policy on the first day of class for the course. Refer to the ATS Student Handbook for additional information regarding attendance policies and excused absences.

Late Assignments: Any assignment submitted after the due date and time will be reduced two numerical points for every day late. For example, two days late would reduce the grade from a 90 to an 86, unless the student talks to the professor ahead of time and receives permission to turn in the assignment late, based upon a legitimate excuse (such as illness).

Format of Papers: Students must use MLA academic style for completing papers; this is also the required style for your dissertation.

INCOMPLETE WORK POLICY

Incomplete Work: “A grade of ‘I’ denotes that course work has not been completed due to an unavoidable emergency. Delinquency or attending to church work or other employment does not constitute an unavoidable emergency. Without an approved ‘I,’ a letter grade will be recorded based on grades received for completed work and an ‘F’ grade assigned to incomplete work” (ATS 2015-16 Student Handbook, page 67).

The unit of credit is a semester hour, which is defined as one hour of classroom work per week for one semester, or its equivalent. The 4.00 point system is used to compute grade point standing. The grading system is:

GRADE	EVALUATION CRITERIA

B	Good work: strong, significant achievement of course objectives
C	Acceptable work: basic, essential achievement of course objectives
D	Marginal work: inadequate, minimal achievement of course objectives
F	Unacceptable work: failure to achieve course objectives

Disability Accommodations

Asbury Theological Seminary provides reasonable accommodation on an individualized basis for qualified students with disabilities. Students are required to provide documentation of a disability prior to receiving classroom accommodations. Since accommodations may require early planning before or at the start of the term and are generally not provided retroactively, students need to contact an Accommodations Officer as soon as possible. If you are a student with a disability and believe you require reasonable accommodations in this class, you will need to make an appointment with an Accommodations Officer in the Office of the Registrar on the Kentucky campus or in the Enrollment Management Office on the Florida campus. Students attending the Tennessee site should contact the Kentucky Registrar.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is expected of every student. Plagiarism, that is, “presenting ... another’s ideas or writings as one’s own,” is considered a serious violation of integrity and is unacceptable. Detailed information, including the penalty for plagiarizing, is in the Student Handbook. For additional information about plagiarism, go to plagiarism.org.

In this course we may utilize Unicheck, an automated system that compares students’ assignments with websites as well as a database of previously submitted student work. After the assignment is processed, instructors receive a report from unicheck.com (through SpeedGrader™) that states if and how another person’s work was used in the assignment. For more information, see www.unicheck.com. If you have questions about academic honesty, please contact the library at helpdesk@asburyseminary.edu.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

By using online media resources, students are consenting to abide by this copyright policy. Any duplication, reproduction, or modification of this material without express written consent from Asbury Theological Seminary and/or the original publisher is strictly prohibited.
